Resolution: 2009 -02 Modernizing the Driving Provisions of the Criminal Code cnt'd

November 2009 – February 2010

- Insp. Stan McNeil (RCMP) and Supt. Bill Snoddon (OPP) participated in a meeting of the Canadian Council of Senior Officials on Impaired Driving in Toronto on 2009-10-05/06. This meeting provided an opportunity to discuss the need for the government to act on the issues identified in this resolution.
- D/Commr. Larry Beechey (OPP), Co-Chair of the Traffic Committee and the Minister of Transport discussed this resolution at a meeting on December 18, 2009. The minister was very interested in this and was only vaguely aware of what we were attempting to accomplish through our resolution. He has been personally affected by tragic events surrounding a fatal collision involving an impaired driver so he is supportive of getting impaired drivers off the road. There was a detailed discussion in regards to the advances made through Bill C2 and the diminishing conviction rates for impaired drivers. Random breath testing provisions, the benefits, and the statistics from other countries that have adopted it such as Ireland and Australia we explained. There was also a discussion concerning the Charter of Rights and opinions as reported by the media. The Minister is fully supportive of this initiative and has promised to support and lobby others when the final bill is presented.
- In mid January 2010, Inspector McNeil discussed the progress on this initiative with Mr. Greg Yost at the DOJ. He stated that "the Government is preparing to launch consultations and we can expect "developments" in the near future."

March – June, 2010

On June 18, 2009, the Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights tabled its report "Ending Alcohol-Impaired Driving: a Common Approach" and made 10 recommendations with respect to impaired driving. The Government response tabled on October 19, 2009 stated that "The Government will consult on a priority basis with the provinces, territories, law enforcement, prosecutors and other stakeholders on the implementation of the recommendations made by the Standing Committee with a view to developing a comprehensive set of reforms."

- On 2010-03-17/18 the DOJ hosted a Round Table of experts meeting in Ottawa. Prior to the meeting the DOJ circulated a consultation paper seeking response to 20 questions concerning proposed government responses. The consultation paper formed the subject of the meeting and participants included representatives from the P/T's, defense attorneys, law enforcement, MADD Canada and other stakeholders. The policing community was represented by D/Commr Larry Beechey (OPP), C/Supt. Bill Grodzinski (OPP), Supt. Earl Witty (Toronto Police Service), Insp. Stan McNeil (RCMP), Insp. Paul Leduc (SQ), Sgt. Scott McDonald (HRPS) and a member of the Ottawa Police Service. Participants were encouraged to submit written response by April 30, 2010.
- On April 30, 2010 the CACP Traffic Committee submitted their written response to the DOJ. A copy of the response is available on the CACP website.
- On May 25, 2010 this matter was discussed with Mr. Greg Yost of DOJ. He advises that the GOC is continuing to consult with Canadians on this matter.

March – July, 2009

The CITIG has been working with the Canadian Council of Emergency Measures Organizations (CCEMO) and the Senior Officials Responsible for Emergency Management (SOREM) — asking them to take responsibility for governance of the CCIP.

The first Canada-US Cross Border Interoperable Communications Workshop was held May 13-15 in Niagara Falls, NY, in collaboration with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Office of Emergency Communications (OEC) and Public Safety Canada. Efforts focused on finalizing the draft CCIP, and addressing administrative, operational and organizational barriers and opportunities to improve cross-border interoperability and public safety practices in both countries.

On May 25th, 2009 a delegation from the CACP, led by President Steven Chabot, met with the Minister of Public Safety, Peter Van Loan and providing a briefing on interoperability and related issues to the Minister. A draft CITIG Strategic Plan is under review by CACP, CAFC and EMSCC. The document identifies strategies to guide CITIG's efforts in the foreseeable future, including:

- Establish the CITIG as the key facilitator and catalyst to improve public safety interoperability in Canada.
- Facilitate the implementation of the Canadian Communications Interoperability Plan on behalf of Public Safety Canada and Canadian responders.
- Identify the governance structure to make CITIG a sustainable, appropriately resourced and formalized entity (i.e. transitioning from genesis phase to a more sustainable structure that includes a clear governance structure).

Regional forums were held in Victoria and Winnipeg. Another regional forum is planned for Whitehorse, YK on September 24th, 2009.

The Third National Voice Interoperability Workshop will be held Nov 15 - 18, 2009 in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Resolution: 2008-08 Support for the Canadian Criminal Intelligence Model (CCIM) cnt'd

- CCIM Project Team efforts focused on research to examine concerns raised by the CISC National Executive Committee (NEC) in August 2009 about CCIM governance and costs/funding.

March – June, 2010

CCIM is recognized as a long-term strategic initiative to develop and implement a common approach to intelligence-led policing in Canada. To be sustainable, CCIM will need to transition from a project to a permanent, national program. The project team has developed a revised scope statement and project plan focused on providing the project sponsor (NEC) with information to facilitate a better informed decision about the future of CCIM.

The scope statement and project plan focus on three deliverables:

1. Intelligence-led policing (ILP) model - to achieve the goal of CCIM there first needs to be a common understanding of intelligence-led policing. The ILP model defines how intelligence and operations should interact with one another in order for policing to be more effective, consistent and efficient. The model will be circulated over the coming months for law enforcement community consultation. The outcomes of this review will help finalize the version that will go to NEC and CACP for resolutions of endorsement.
2. Pilot study - to develop, test and evaluate one CCIM standard with community participation. The topic of the pilot study to be confirmed by the CISC Supervisory Committee.
3. Program plan - to outline the requirements to establish a permanent, national program.

We intend to present the scope statement and program plan to NEC for approval in Fall 2010. Outcomes of the project will be presented to NEC in Fall 2011 for a decision on whether or not to establish a national program.

Resolution: 2008-09 Chronic Offenders

Resolution Summary:

The CACP calls upon the Federal Minister of Justice to amend the Criminal code to: establish a definition for the term "chronic offender" based on a threshold number of offences committed over a distinct period of time; establish the principle in bail hearings that being a chronic offender is prima facie proof that section 515(10)(b) and (c) of the Criminal Code have been satisfied; place the onus on a chronic offender who is facing a bail refusal application to show cause why they should be given judicial interim release; remove the sentencing principle established in the Criminal Code that requires sentencing judges to consider alternatives to incarceration if the case in questions relates to the sentencing of a chronic offender, and mandate every increasing sentences of incarceration in cases involving chronic offenders for the specific purpose of decreasing victimization.

March – July, 2009

The Vancouver Board of Trade recently made a presentation to the Justice Committee in Ottawa and sent a letter to Minister Nicholson expressing their concerns around the issue of Chronic Offenders. They received a letter back indicating FPT ministers are still looking at the issue.

The Vancouver Police Department Planning and Research Section, along with Sergeant Ruben Sorge are continuing to look at this issue with an eye to developing wording for a recommended legislative change. We are looking to develop a strategy to address legislative change in relation to 718 of the Code. We would be looking to do this in order to provide a legislative framework by which Judges would be able and willing to enter into "Escalating Sentencing" in the case of incorrigible offenders.

Resolution: 2008-10 Drug Evaluation and Classification Program

Resolution Summary:

The CACP recognize the Drug Evaluation and Classification (DEC) Program currently under the stewardship of the RCMP as being the sole approved training for SFST, DRE, and DRE Trainers for Canadian police personnel.

Target Date for Completion: ongoing

Sponsor/Champion: Traffic Committee

Summary of progress since initiation:

Association has sent letters outlining CACP resolutions and issues to the Ministers of Public Safety and the Minister of Justice and Attorney General.

October 2008 – February 2009

Background

On July 2, 2008 the drug impaired driving provisions of Bill C-2 came into effect. The regulations regarding this Bill outline the program and training requirements based on the IACP Drug Recognition Program.

DEC Program oversees all Canadian training for Drug Recognition Experts (DRE) and Standard Field Sobriety Testing (SFST). This training is all conducted in Canada, with the exception of the DRE Certification Training which is carried out at the Maricopa County Detention Centre in Phoenix, Arizona. This facility is also utilized by numerous American police agencies for DRE certification.

CURRENT STATUS:

There are currently 321 certified DRE police officers in Canada representing more than 50 police agencies from all provinces. There are nearly 3,000 Canadian police officers trained in SFST techniques. Currently there are 190 drug impaired driving charges before the courts. To date, only 1 charge has been settled by way of a guilty plea.

In order to improve the collection of data concerning drug impaired driving and to facilitate research to combat this problem, the DEC Program is working with the RCMP Chief Information Office to develop an electronic data capture tool for all Canadian police agencies to utilize. It is anticipated that this tool will be on-line in April 2009.

The DEC Program National Coordinator is working through the CACP Traffic Committee with the Ontario Provincial Police in hopes of identifying a Canadian site in Ontario for DRE certification training.

March – July, 2009

No change in status.

August – October, 2009

- There are currently more than 410 certified DRE police officers from over 60 Canadian police agencies. There are over 4,000 Canadian police officers currently trained in SFST techniques.
- During the first year following the implementation of the drug impaired driving provisions of Bill C-2, over 500 motorists were charged with drug impaired driving.
- To improve the collection of data concerning drug impaired driving and to facilitate research to combat this problem, the DEC Program is working with the RCMP Chief Information Office to develop an electronic data capture tool for all Canadian police agencies to utilize. This project has been delayed due to the Olympics and is now scheduled to be piloted in May 2010.

Resolution: 2008-10 Drug Evaluation and Classification Program cont'd

November 2009 – February 2010

- There are now 540 DRE officers in Canada in 50 agencies and more than 3400 police officers trained in SFST techniques. Over 850 evaluations have been carried out on suspected drug impaired drives. Approximately 600 drug impaired driving charges are before the courts.
- The DEC Program continues to work with the RCMP CIO office to develop an electronic data capture tool which all Canadian police agencies can use. The electronic data collection face sheet has been finalized and programmers continue to work on developing and implementing the system. Due to resourcing pressures, implementation has been delayed until the new fiscal year.
- The DEC Program coordinator is working through the CACP Traffic Committee and the DRE Steering Committee to identify a Canadian site for DRE certification training.
- The DEC Program national coordinator has recently received the updated IACP DEC Program training manuals. They are being reviewed and modified to conform to Canadian terminology. Once this process is complete, the manuals will be translated into French to assist in the delivery of DRE training in Quebec and other regions of the country where there is a demand for this training in French.
- An annual report is being prepared for all program activities undertaken during the 2009 calendar year and will be presented to the CACP Traffic Committee at their annual meeting scheduled in April 2010.

March – June, 2010

Drug impaired driving legislation has now been enacted for 2 years and the DEC Program prepares an annual report for the Traffic Committee each year. This concludes Resolution 2008- 10.

Lawful Access to Encrypted Electronic Media

Resolution Summary:

The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police calls upon the Government of Canada through the Minister of Justice and Attorney-General to amend the Criminal Code to provide a requirement which would compel parties to provide electronic encryption keys to data under their care and control during the execution of a lawful search, and;

Further, that the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police calls upon the Government of Canada through the Minister of Justice and Attorney-General to amend the Criminal Code of Canada so as to create an offence for failing to comply with an order to provide a password or encryption key as aforesaid, which offence would be punishable by the same penalty as the subject offence under investigation.

Target Date for Completion: ongoing

Sponsor: e Crime and Law Amendments
Champion: D/C Cst. Clayton Pecknold

Summary of progress since initiation:

- The Law Amendments Committee, the Organized Crime Committee and the National Security Committee continue their advocacy efforts at every opportunity. The LAES (Lawfully Authorized Electronic Surveillance) sub-committee continues to liaise with officials at Public Safety Canada.
- Efforts to raise awareness in the context of internet child exploitation underway through E-Crime Committee
- The initiative, because of its complexity and several related components, poses significant challenges from a public communication perspective.
- The present minority government environment means that the MITA Bill (or its equivalent) is unlikely to be introduced in this Parliament. Even when introduced considerable public and private advocacy will be required to address expected privacy, industry and civil society concerns
- At the January meeting of the LAC, committee members agreed that this initiative required an infusion of expert advice to assist in reinvigorating government enthusiasm and creating a comprehensive communication strategy in support of the initiative. Recommendation made to the Board of Directors made to consider retaining the services of a government relations/communications strategist to work with the committees relevant to the Lawful Access initiative on a project basis.
- LAC appeared as an intervenor on R v Tele-Mobile. The Supreme Court of Canada s dismissed the appeal by Telus. The Court determined that the existing scheme permits ex parte applications for production orders. Furthermore, the Court concluded that a Judge may only have regard to the financial cost of complying with the production order on a subsequent motion for exemption. Finally, the Court agreed with the decision of the original application judge that an exemption should only be granted if compliance with the production order would be unreasonable.

April – July 2008

- Issue paper on lawful access prepared for CACP membership

March – July, 2009

- On June 18, 2009, the government introduced lawful access legislation in two bills. The first, Bill C-46, is titled Investigative Powers for the 21st Century (IP21C) Act, and the second, Bill C-47, is titled Technical Assistance for Law Enforcement in the 21st Century Act.

August - October 2009

- The Investigative Powers of the 21st Century (IP21C) Act (introduced as Bill C-46) will ensure that law enforcement have the tools to fight crime in today's modern environment by updating certain existing offences as well as creating investigative powers to effectively deal with crime in today's computer and telecommunications environment.
- The Technical Assistance for Law Enforcement in the 21s Century Act (introduced as Bill C-47) will require service providers to include interception capability in their networks. Requirements to obtain court orders to intercept communications will not be changed by this Act, which will require service providers to supply basic subscriber information to law enforcement agencies and the Canadian Security Intelligence Service on request.
- Bills C-46 and C47 do not address this Resolution. The proposed legislation would not compel parties to provide electronic encryption keys to data under their care and control during the execution of a lawful search or make it an offence for those who fail to comply with an order to provide a password or encryption key.

November 2009 – February 2010

- No change in status.

March – June, 2010

The FPT (Federal, Provincial and Territorial) CyberCrime working group has been tasked with determining the impact of encryption when investigating an offence. Gary Shinkaruk, RCMP, Officer in Charge Project E-Pandora, and Supt Michel Aubin, RCMP, Director Federal & International Operations appeared before the Standing Committee of Justice and Human Rights to discuss the scheduling or listing of criminal organizations.

Currently, courts require the tying of the offence to the criminal organization and further the need to adduce the evidence pertaining to the crime itself; the need to demonstrate the criminal organization is a criminal organization as per 467 CC; and the need to link the offence to the criminal organization. The law enforcement representatives suggested that once a criminal organization has been designated as such through a criminal trial, that this designation be recognized nationally so as to avoid having to repeat the process in future.

Resolution: 2006-04 Scheduling of Criminal Organizations cont'd

Christopher Mainella, Public Prosecution Service of Canada did not support the scheduling of criminal organizations and suggested alternative options, including:

- Include the presentation of evidence from a previous judicial finding about a particular group for a judge to consider as evidence for an ongoing trial.
- Having Parliament declare that the issue of whether a group is a criminal organization is a question of law, so that at least a jury would not have to be tied up listening to such evidence for days or weeks. Such matters could be decided by a judge prior to trial under subsection 645(5) of the Criminal Code."

Professor Kent Roach (Pritchard-Wilson Chair, Faculty of Law, University of Toronto) also did not support the scheduling of criminal organizations. He suggested that recommendations by Lesage and Code would remedy the problems identified by the law enforcement representatives in regards to lengthy, complex criminal organization trials. Further study is planned for the fall of 2009.

The proposal calls for $5 million in funding and the dedication of 45 members to create an expanded Phone Busters Centre in North Bay.
